Teams may still play the game for "fun" but umpire will be paid and can leave.
7. The decision to call a game off due to weather/field conditions will be made by the head coach of the home team at least two hours prior to the starting time. If a decision is not made to cancel two hours prior, all players should be report to the field. The umpire will then determine whether to call the game at the field.
 - 7a. If games are cancelled, coaches should make every attempt to reschedule these games within a two-week time period. All games should be made up by the week before the playoffs. Failure to do so MAY result in a forfeit for one or both teams unwilling / unable to make up the game. The home team head coach must notify their umpire coordinator of the rescheduled date/time/field.
