Carolina FC's EDP Program provides a curriculum framework for children focusing on soccer skills tailored to include: Physical Literacy, Basic Motor Skills, Emotional, personal and social development, Individual Ball Mastery, Cognitive Development.

Young players will be exposed to the World's # 1 skills method lead by qualified Coaching Instructors.

Training Overview:

Ball Mastery - Exercises changing direction players work alone using the ball with high repetition of touches

Physical Literacy - Fun games incorporating game specific movements

Small sided games - 1v1 & 3v3 games where players work alone using the ball with high repetition of touches

Participation in this program will assist children in developing positive 'self esteem'; promote a healthy attitude towards physical activity as well as developing basic physical literacy and ball skills.
