

WEEK 5 FLIGHT ZONE POWER RANKINGS

Getting closer and closer to Championship Sunday!! I couldn't be more proud of the effort I see displayed by these student-athletes. First report cards coming up soon I know they are putting the same effort into their school duties as well. Now that each team has played each other at least once let's see how the coaches and players adjust.

Fight for the top spot this week as the Seahawks look to avenge their only loss this season. These two teams have created a huge rivalry and what better week to be playing against each other? Let's just hope it will be a better game than the one in Ann Arbor as we all know the Wolverines will be destroying the Spartans!!
