

TEAM COMMITMENT TO WEST ZONE TOURNAMENT

Pony Northwest Leagues have chosen to pre-pay for airline tickets for the Region Tournament champions to travel to the Zone Tournament. As a representative of your league, your team is responsible for committing to continue playing in tournaments through the World Series.

The winner of the Region Tournament is responsible for purchasing the airline tickets for your respective Zone Tournament. Your team and your league assume full responsibility for purchasing the airline tickets and agree to pay the cost in full to Northwest Pony Baseball upon winning the Region Tournament.

Teams will not be allowed to play in the Northwest Region Tournament unless the team and league commit to travel to the Zone Tournament and agree to purchase the airline tickets. Airline tickets were purchased to provide benefits to the Region Champions, which include:

- Decreased cost of air travel
- Eliminate the possibility of unavailable flights
- Reduce the stress of last minute travel planning
- Encourage rested players that will be prepared for the rigors of competing in the Zone Tournament.

We acknowledge the above and agree that our team will travel to the Zone Tournament if our team is the tournament champion and that our team and league are financially responsible for the cost of the airline tickets, which have been pre-paid by Pony Baseball.
