

EPSC Showcase Teams

31st Overall Pick in the 2019 Draft - April Bockin – played in EPSC Showcase Teams

At EPSC, there is a rich tradition of preparing and aiding players to play at the collegiate level. There were 27 EPSC Alum playing collegiately during the 2019 Season, and there will be several current EPSC players joining the college ranks for the 2020 Season.

There is a proven season plan of showcasing players in front of college coaches and best preparing them for the next level. Professionalism, travel, game preparation, off the field pieces, nutrition, tactical knowledge, and many other pieces are taught to the players so the transition to the college game is seamless.

From our Executive Director, our Directors of Coaching, College Advisory Liaison through to our administrative experience, we at EPSC have been there and done it, year after year.
