is in force).

f. A Term Suspension is appropriate for Association officials and would include touchline, ground and Administrative Suspension (a ban from all soccer related activities while the Suspension is in force).

g. Term Suspensions should be assessed for cases where the seriousness of the misconduct is considered high and where the offence is exceptional; and for all association officials including but not limited to:
   i. Assault against a Match Official
   ii. Combinations of violent conduct, serious foul play, threats, indecent behaviour, abusive language
   iii. Where there is negative reference or discrimination to any one or more of the following:
       ethnic origin, colour, race, nationality, gender or sexual orientation
   iv. Failure to report misconduct
   v. Misconduct by a Match or Association Official

h. Other than for one Match Automatic Suspension, Sanctions initiate the day the decision is made available to the respondent either at a hearing or when the results of a hearing are provided to the accused.

i. In the case of an administrative Sanction, the Judicial Panel may start the Sanctions up to seven days after the results of the hearing are provided to the accused and only where the Judicial Panel can show that such delay is for the good of the Match and that the likelihood of additional misconduct in the period of delay is minimal.
4.3 CONSECUTIVE, ADDITIVE AND PROGRESSIVE SANCTIONING

a. Probationary, suspended or concurrent sentences are not permitted.

b. Sanctions are meant to be consecutive, additive and progressive. Multiple misconduct regardless of category results in progressive Sanctioning (even if heard at one hearing). The tenet is that for every incident of misconduct or escalation in conduct subsequent to the initial action, the degree of Suspension steps up progressively.

c. Each new action is separate and distinct from the previous attracting its own potential Sanction at potentially the next level. Sanctioning recognizes that progressive Sanctions should be ameliorated based on the specific offences and the recognition of the competitive nature of soccer play.

d. At hearings the considerations are for the actual actions of misconduct and not necessarily limited to the contents of a referee report or actual complaint. Sanctioning is based on actions carried out and supportable by written evidence or via investigation.

e. All forms of available evidence may be considered at the discretion of the Judicial Panel including but not limited to:
   i. Referee reports
   ii. Reports by any other official
   iii. Reports from a Member or Affiliated Organization
   iv. Victim evidence
   v. Witness testimony
   vi. Social media
   vii. News reports
   viii. Picture and video
   ix. Past history
   x. References

f. The concept of additive Sanctioning is in force where there are multiple incidents of misconduct, in a single Match situation, or over a period of time.

g. Circumstances must be considered as well as the opportunity for education or other Sanctions.

h. Sanctions of individuals must consider what is best for the sport and where reasonable may have allowance for transfer of duties, activity under supervision or limited participation under a clearly defined scope.

4.4 IMPARTIALITY AND CONSIDERATION OF MITIGATING AND AGGRAVATING FACTORS

a. Sanctioning is carried out impartially. Judicial Panels must focus on the evidence before them and apply the appropriate Sanctions, Suspension or fines in accordance to the severity, impact and potential implications of the misconduct fully considering any mitigating or aggravating circumstances. The misconduct as reported may not be what a Judicial Panel ultimately issues Sanctions for.
b. Mitigating and aggravating factors may lessen or increase the type, length and breadth of Sanction. First offences are provided a Sanction in accordance to the guidelines for a first offence.

c. Where the Sanctioning guidelines stipulate a minimum Sanction for a given misconduct a Judicial Panel should not go below this threshold without providing for alternate Sanction such as educational requirements or strong mitigating factors. Match Officials are encouraged to report on mitigating and aggravating factors.

d. Aggravating and mitigating factors are not to be considered when deciding the accountability of the offence, only the application of the Sanction.

e. Mitigating factors may include:
   i. Previous good record
   ii. Acting under direct provocation
   iii. Low severity
   iv. Non-initiation or no intent
   v. Personal and medical issues
   vi. Educational result or event has enlightened participant vii. Level of apology and actions of recovery viii. Accepting blame, showing remorse and independently seeking to remedy

f. Aggravating factors may include:
   i. Premeditation
   ii. Targeting individuals
   iii. Bullying
   iv. Prolongation, persistence and repetition in words, action and violence
   v. Harm or injury rendered and intent to injure
   vi. High severity
   vii. Previous poor record viii. Phases of the incident in a Match or administrative actions
   ix. Position of participant
   x. Lack of Remorse

g. Second offences are provided a Sanction in accordance to the guidelines for a second offence; even if such offence happens immediately following the first offence. The second offence thus being an escalation, continuing dissent or prolongation and as such is aggravating.

h. Third offences are provided a Sanction in accordance to the guidelines for a third offence; even if such offence happens immediately following the second offence. The third offence thus being further escalation, continuing dissent or prolongation and as such is aggravating.

i. If the Judicial Panel believes there is just cause, they may issue any such Sanction within the limits for egregious acts of misconduct according to the guidelines for the offence or offences; to be determined by the Judicial Panel up to any term including lifetime Suspension.

j. Fourth Offences may be Sanctioned in a manner to be determined by the Judicial Panel up to any term including lifetime Suspension.

   iii. Where there is discrepancy in the term of the Suspension (Matches vs. weeks or months), the Judicial Panel shall convert the Matches at a rate of 1 Match = 1 week.

EXAMPLE:

A Judicial Panel determines that a coach (i.e. Team Official) is found to be guilty of Verbal Abuse of a Match Official. The Match Official is a Youth. It is the coach’s first offence. The coach has one Match each week.

The following are applicable:

Sanctions for Team Officials – Breaches to Code of Conduct, Rules and Regulations, etc.

| #  | Short Name                  | Description of Misconduct                                           | Touchline / Field / Administrative | Fine/Bond | First Offence | Second Offence | Third Offence | Egregious
