

Eric Dooley – Bio

Eric attended Sandia High School in Albuquerque, NM and received NSCAA & Parade HS All-American honors in 1993. Eric played for the US U18 MNT and was invited into the US U23 Olympic training pool. Dooley attended The University of Nevada Las Vegas for his freshman year of college during the 1994 season. The last three years of his college career saw him star in the midfield for his hometown Lobo Men's Soccer program. Dooley graduated with a Finance degree from UNM.

Following his college soccer career Dooley played professional soccer with the Tennessee Rhythm of the USL A-League playing mainly as an outside back and center back.

Following his professional playing career Eric owned a chain of restaurants in New Mexico. Eric decided to get back involved in the game in an administrator capacity a few years ago working with NM Rush Soccer part-time. Eric is now full-time with NM Rush Soccer Club handling the business side of the club and managing the club's new training facility The Center.
