

Justin Sells Bio

Justin Sells - Technical Director

Justin attended Hononegah Community High School in Rockton, Illinois and received NSCAA HS All-American honors in 1993. Sells attended The University of New Mexico from 1994-1997 where he was a collegiate All-American for the Lobos in 1997 and an all-conference selection each of his four years for UNM. Sells currently holds career goals and points records for the Lobo Men's Soccer program. Sells graduated with a B.S. in Physical Education.

Following his college soccer career Sells was selected in the 1998 MLS Supplementary Draft by the San Jose Clash and was the first overall pick in the 1998 USL A-League Draft by the Albuquerque Geckos. Sells enjoyed a extensive professional soccer career spanning more than five years making close to 100 appearances as a pro in MLS and USL A-League with the; San Jose Clash, Charleston Battery, Hampton Roads Mariners, El Paso Patriots and Tennessee Rhythm.

Sells currently holds a USSF A License and National Youth License.

Over his 15 years coaching youth soccer, all with NM Rush, he has aided in the development of various US Youth and US U20 players, worked closely with multiple MLS Super Draft selections, won a USYS National League Championship and worked with multiple US Youth Soccer National Championships Tournament teams.

Coach Sells has worked with various age groups on both the boys and girls sides of New Mexico Rush during his tenure with the club. His true passion is rooted in the challenge and enjoyment of working with players at various stages of their soccer career. Coach Sells has been described as a challenging, passionate and truly insightful coach.

Justin Sells
Technical Director
New Mexico Rush Soccer Club
The Center home of NM Rush Soccer Club
4425 Prosepct Ave NE Suite 155
Albuquerque, NM 87120
jsells@nmrush.com
www.nmrush.com