- Short Bio:
- Justin grew up playing soccer from the age of 6 and developed a great love for the game. He began his competition experience playing for Sparta United and played for great coaches like Ben Vandenhazel, Stacy McNicol, Chris Agnello, Miguez Nunez, and Phil Roberts. He played with some of the first players who were instrumental in bringing professional soccer to Utah (Freezz/Blitzz)
 - Competed on the Olympic Development Team (ODP) at the regional level
 - He played high school soccer at Brighton High School
 - Justin got involved coaching competition soccer when his oldest daughter also developed the love of the game and tried out for the 2006 girls team. He has been with AYSO United since that point, continuing to push for competitive play, while also building and developing our players
 - Believes strongly in a positive attitude and in complimenting and building our players. Encourages them to take risks, grow as players, and push themselves to a higher level
 - Loves the AYSO philosophy of growing our players and in the belief that soccer can play a vital role in creating a well-balanced player on and off the field
