Short Bio: Scott has coached soccer for 17 years, mostly at the youth and middle school level. Through recreational programs, middle school programs, and for the past three years at the competitive level for AYSO UNITED. For the past ten years most of that coaching has been for Scott's three children, Gavin, Chloe, and Gracey. Him and his wife, April, love spending time with their kids and watching them grow in sports and as individuals. Scott has also coached baseball and basketball at varying levels.

Scott picked up playing soccer in middle school. He then went on to play four years of JV & Varsity soccer for his high school team in New Hampshire and continues to play in adult leagues to this day. He is a Physical Education Teacher at Indian Hills Middle School in Sandy, so sports are pretty much life! GO PATRIOTS, GO RED SOX, GO CELTICS, GO BRUINS!!!

Scott's coaching philosophy revolves around team and individual enjoyment and improvement. He wants his players to work hard, have fun, and be respectful on and off the field. Winning is important, but player development, sportsmanship, and having a good time are very high on the list as well!
