

Maureen Manion started playing lacrosse at Worthington (Ohio) High School, just outside of Columbus. There she was a three-year Varsity player and her team won the Midwest Schoolgirls Lacrosse title her Senior year. She continued to play in college at the club level at Indiana University. After relocating to Cincinnati, OH, she started the high school program at Ursuline Academy and was the head coach for four years. She now helps with both the girls and boys programs at DYLA.