

Senior Baseball (Tri-Valley Babe Ruth) Programs for Ages 13 - 16

Spring (Late April - Early June)

The Senior Baseball Spring league (Tri-Valley Babe Ruth) is for youth players age 13 to 16. Senior Baseball is competitive baseball and played on the full-sized diamond - same size as the MLB (90" between bases and 60'6" from pitcher's rubber to home plate). Ashland teams will play against other Tri-Valley teams, typically Bellingham, Hopedale, Holliston, Hopkinton, Medway, Medfield, & Millis. This travel league is run by Medway Little League with rules similar to high school, i.e. leading, stealing, balks, pick-off, etc. The league is split into a Minors (ages 13 – 14) and Majors League (ages 15 – 16). There are no tryouts.

Games and Practices: A typical week will include 1-2 weekday practices with usually 1 game during the weekday and 1 on the weekend.

Where: Home games are at Stone Park. Away games are at other participating towns.

Registration: Opens in early November for the following spring.

Summer (Mid June - Late July)

The Senior Baseball Summer league (Tri-Valley Babe Ruth) is for youth players age 13 to 16. Senior Baseball is competitive baseball and played on the full-sized diamond - same size as the MLB (90" between bases and 60'6" from pitcher's rubber to home plate). Ashland teams will play against other Tri-Valley teams, typically Bellingham, Hopedale, Holliston, Hopkinton, Medway, Medfield, & Millis. This travel league is run by Medway Little League with rules similar to high school, i.e. leading, stealing, balks, pick-off, etc. The league is split into a Minors (ages 13 – 14) and Majors League (ages 15 – 16).
