Affidavits and Player Eligibility forms are done through the Data Center this year. Make sure your maps are up to date.

Brief discussion on Concussion Mandates. Looking into ways that we can track who had completed.

Ken Lenski brought up a bat issue, they are having with new bats. 1) Illegal bats being used in Minor League. 2) Easton S450 and S650 bats are denting too easily. 3) Rawlings bats are warping.

Child Protection Act – If you see a child that you think maybe abused, it is now law that you call authorities. Not doing so is now a Federal Offense.

It has been decided within the district, that All-Stars will not be announced until June 15. Motion was made by Jeff Shaw, seconded by Kyle Zinke and Unanimously voted in.

Max has 4 banners if anyone would like to use them for Batters Eye, 2 baseball and 2 softball.

Max brought up the possibility of purchasing a laptop, projector and screen for Power Point Presentations. Also discussed using Google Docs for tracking paperwork that is required.

Holly Christman will look into Verizon for internet access for the Central Regional Tournament.

Election, Sue Judy made a motion to elect Tim Trevier again, Seconded by Jeff Shaw. Tim was unanimously voted in for another 4 years.

Bullying – We as a District need to come up with a procedure for this. Bullying cannot and will not be tolerated within District 20.

Question came up about whether or not a player can play 2 games in a day. The umpire of the game said no, but there is no basis for that call.

Motion made to adjourn by Jeff Shaw and seconded by Kyle Zinke.

Meeting adjourned at 2:04 PM.

Respectfully,
