

GLL “RainedOut” Text Messaging Service

FAQ’s for Parents

Q: What is the “RainedOut” text messaging service?

A: It is a mobile phone text messaging service that GLL utilizes to inform parents of weather-related practice or game cancellations.

Q: Why does GLL use the “RainedOut” text messaging service?

A: It allows team Managers to send short text messages (~100 characters) to mobile phones in short-notice situations when phone calling all parents is too cumbersome or when sending email isn't fast enough.

Q: Why would I want to subscribe to this service?

A: This texting service is GLL’s primary method of communicating practice and game cancellations to parents.

Q: How do parents subscribe to this service?

A: It is very simple and fast. From your mobile phone, send\text the keyword for your child’s team to 84483; if successful, a confirming text will be sent back.

Q: What is the keyword for my child’s team?

A: Team Managers will email instructions to their team’s parents. Instructions are also available on the Communications page of <https://www.graftonlittleleague.com/>.

Q: What if I have children on multiple teams?

A: You can subscribe to receive alerts for multiple teams.

Q: Can parents respond to text messages from team Managers?

A: No, this is a one-way texting service.

Q: Do I need a smartphone to utilize this service?

A: No, if your mobile phone can receive text messages you should be able to receive the “RainedOut” text messages.

Q: Will I be bothered with text messages for every GLL team?

A: No, text messages are sent on a team-by-team basis.

Q: Will I receive junk\spam text messages?

A: No, you will not receive spam or unsolicited content from other sources.

Q: Is there a charge for this service?

A: Yes, there is a $2 per player fee that is collected during registration; standard text message rates or data charges from your mobile phone provider may also apply.

Q: Do I need to re-subscribe if I subscribed last year?

A: Yes, all subscribers are purged from the system at the end of each season.

FAQ's for Team Managers

Q: What is the expectation of me as a team Manager?

A: To consistently utilize the "RainedOut" text messaging service to inform parents of practice or game cancellations. This service is GLL's primary method of communicating with parents about cancellations; parents will be relying upon you to use this service.

Q: Who determines if practice or games will be canceled?

A: The GLL President (Greg Schaefer) will monitor the weather and consult with the field maintenance people to determine if the fields are usable.

Q: How will team Managers be informed that the fields are not usable?

A: The GLL President will send a text message to team Managers when the fields are not usable. If your team has a scheduled practice or game that day, you then need to use the RainedOut service to text message your team's parents.

Q: How do I send a text message to my team's parents?

A: The GLL Information Officer (Mike Wagner) will email instructions to team Managers.

Q: When I send a text message with this service, who will receive it?

A: Only parents that have subscribed using your team's keyword.

Q: Can parents respond to text messages from team Managers?

A: No, this is a one-way texting system.

Q: Can I use this service for messages other than cancellations?

A: Yes, you can use it for game or practice reminders, etc. Do not overuse it or parents may become annoyed and unsubscribe.
