VYSL ORGANIZATION PLAN

VYSL BYLAWS

ARTICLE I: NAME

This Association shall be known as the Vermillion Youth Soccer League (hereinafter VYSL).

ARTICLE II: PURPOSE

The purpose of VYSL shall be:

- To organize and operate as a not-for-profit organization for social welfare, civic improvement, and other similar purposes, and be incorporated within the state/ provincial statutes as such.
- To promote and foster the game of soccer by providing opportunities, both recreational and competitive, to all youth in the Vermillion area, including Clay and Union Counties, at the lowest possible cost.
- To integrate the building of self-esteem, responsibility, physical fitness, self-discipline, teamwork, sportsmanship, and respect toward self and others into each athlete's soccer experience.
- To provide a fun, enjoyable, and satisfying experience for players, coaches, referees, and parents.
- To provide opportunities in technical and tactical development, coaching education, and referee education.

ARTICLE III: JURISDICTION

Any member of VYSL automatically comes under the jurisdiction and control of the local, district and state associations affiliated with US Youth Soccer, United States Soccer Federation, FIFA, and South Dakota State Soccer Association. While VYSL shares jurisdiction with those affiliated entities, any final decisions made by VYSL with respect to its members, parents of members, officers, directors or with respect to its finances or property are binding upon all said members, parents of members, officers and directors and are only subject to re-evaluation at the sole discretion of VYSL Board of Directors consistent with these bylaws.

ARTICLE IV: MEMBERSHIP

There shall be two groups that comprise the membership of VYSL:

- YOUTH MEMBERS shall be comprised of all individuals under the age of 18 who are registered to participate in VYSL activities.
- VOTING MEMBERS shall be comprised of individuals 18 years and older who hold approved membership in VYSL, including coaches, referees, and guardians of youth members. Membership is granted and renewed at the start of each soccer season. Voting members can attend regular board meetings and are entitled to vote in annual elections or special initiatives. Each family may hold only one voting membership, regardless of the number of youth members involved in VYSL. Voting members must be in "good standing" to utilize their votes or hold position on the Board of Directors. Good standing is defined as all fees are paid and there are no active disciplinary actions. The Board of Directors may suspend any of its members by a two-thirds supermajority vote.

ARTICLE V: DIRECTORS

Authority: The government and authority of VYSL shall be vested in its Board of Directors.

That Board shall:

- Establish the policies governing all activities of VYSL.
- Organize and supervise all activities within VYSL.
- Have the management and control of the property and affairs of VYSL.
- Appoint committee chairs of VYSL.
- Have all the powers that may be exercised by a Board of Directors pursuant to law, except as otherwise provided in these bylaws.

Composition: The Board of Directors shall be composed of 8 elected members, plus 1 ex-officio member.

Terms of Office: Except for the ex-officio member, each Director shall serve a two-year term beginning with the general meeting immediately following the election. A Director may serve consecutive terms but must run for re-election. No more than 1/2 of elected director positions will be up for election in any given year.

Vacancies: In the event of the permanent absence of an officer of VYSL due to illness, resignation, or other cause, the Board of Directors shall fill the unexpired term by a nomination process and election among the remaining Directors until a permanent replacement is named by the general membership in accordance with voting procedures. An officer absenting himself from three successive meetings of the Board of Directors without explicit just cause may have his office declared vacant by the Board of Directors.

Removal of Directors: Any Director may be removed from office by a supermajority (two-thirds) vote of Directors qualified at a meeting called for that purpose with proper notice to the person involved. A statement drafted by the Board of Directors of the proposed removal of such Director shall be sent by registered or certified mail to the Director at his/her last recorded address at least 15 days before action is taken. The Director shall be given an opportunity to make a presentation at the time and place mentioned in such notice. (Before had "A Removal of elected officers for cause may be done at the annual membership meeting. A two-thirds majority of votes cast is required for removal.")

ARTICLE VI: OFFICERS

All officers are elected as part of the Board of Directors and will consist of President, President Elect, Secretary, Treasurer/Registrar, Game Coordinator, and Equipment Coordinator. The officers shall have such powers and duties as are prescribed in these bylaws and as delegated by the Board of Directors.

All officers shall hold office for two year or until their successors are duly elected or appointed as provided in these bylaws. If any office becomes vacant for any reason, the remaining term of the vacancy shall be filled by a majority vote by the Board of Directors.

- Election of Board of Directors will occur prior to November 30.
- Upon completion of the election, announcement of the successful candidates will be made to the voting members within 15 days.

ARTICLE VIII: MEETINGS

The procedures of any meeting shall be governed by Roberts Rules of Order for all situations not covered in these bylaws. A parliamentarian may be appointed by the President as needed.

Quorum: Board of Director and committee meetings, unless otherwise stated, will require a simple majority present to constitute a quorum. A simple majority would be half the members plus one, or a minimum of 51% of respective members present to conduct the meeting. Meetings of general membership, including the annual meeting and special meetings, do not have quorum requirements if appropriate notification, as defined in the bylaws, is given.

The ANNUAL MEETING of VYSL will be conducted in November. This is the month prior to the end of the fiscal year. The President, unless absent, will oversee the business and conduct of the meeting. The purpose of the annual meeting is to approve a financially responsible budget and to elect officers. Simple majority of those voting members present at the meeting will dictate decisions, with the President being the tie-breaking vote, except for actions intended to change bylaws or remove an officer, which requires a supermajority vote, or when electing officers, which requires a majority vote.

The Secretary shall make annual meeting minutes available to voting members per procedures outlined in the bylaws.

BOARD MEETINGS of VYSL shall be held at such time and place as may be determined by the Board of Directors with a minimum of 7 days' notice given to the voting membership. The VYSL Board of Directors will meet a minimum of 8 times annually to conduct regular business operations of VYSL. Board of Director Meetings will require a simple majority present to constitute a quorum with the President, unless absent, overseeing the business and conduct of the meeting. A simple majority would be half the members plus one, or a minimum of 51% of respective members present to conduct the meeting. The Secretary shall make Board of Director meeting minutes available to voting members per procedures outlined in the bylaws. Except for Bylaw changes and disciplinary actions, which required super majority vote, simple majority of those voting Board Members present at the meeting will dictate decisions, with the President being the tie-breaking vote. 5 voting members may petition for a special meeting for reviewing a ruling of VYSL Board of Directors.

COMMITTEE MEETINGS shall meet a minimum of 4 times annually to conduct regular business meetings with the Director of the respective committee, unless absent, overseeing the business and conduct of the meeting. Committee meetings require a simple majority present to constitute a quorum. A simple majority would be half the members plus one, or a minimum of 51% of respective members present to conduct the meeting. The meeting minutes of committees will be maintained by the Secretary as outlined in the bylaws. Simple majority of those voting committee members present at the meeting will dictate decisions.

SPECIAL MEETINGS may be called by the President, the majority of VYSL Board of Directors, or by petition of at least 5 voting members. When possible, membership will be notified of special meetings at least 3 days in advance of the meeting and advised what business will be considered. No other business may be conducted at the meetings. Simple majority of those voting members present at the meeting will dictate decisions, including for the revision of a ruling by the Board of Directors, with the President being the tie-breaking vote, except for actions intended to change bylaws or remove an officer, which requires a supermajority vote, or when electing officers, which requires a majority vote. Meeting minutes will be distributed to the voting membership as stated in the Secretarial duties.

All income received shall be for the non-profit purposes of the organization and no part of the income shall benefit any officer or member.

No officer, director or member of VYSL shall accept any property, contribution, gift or bequest without authorization of the Board of Directors.

No officer, director or member of VYSL shall disburse or accept any funds or moneys without authorization of the Board of Directors.

The Board of Directors shall decide all matters pertaining to VYSL finances. An annual financial review will be arranged with an independent party to ensure sound financial responsibility.

VYSL owns the identity of the organization, its teams and facilities. No person shall use the name, mailing list or official insignia of VYSL without authorization of the Board of Directors, which is to be confirmed in writing by the Secretary.

The fiscal year of VYSL shall be January 1 to December 31 of each year.

Any fund-raising activity on behalf of VYSL shall be approved by the Board of Directors.

Indemnity: VYSL hereby determines to provide for the absence of monetary liability of Officers and Directors of VYSL when the duties of said Officers and Directors are performed in good faith, with the belief that actions taken are in the best interest of VYSL, and when reasonable care is taken. VYSL may, by resolution of the Board of Directors, provide indemnification of any and all of its current or former Officers and/or Directors against expenses, fines, judgments, settlements, and other amounts actually and reasonably incurred in connection with the defense of any actions, suits, or proceedings in which any of them are made parties, or a party, by reason of having been Officers and/or Directors of the Association, except in relation to matters as to which said Officer(s) and/or Director(s) shall be adjudged in such action, suit, or proceeding, to have failed those standards set forth in any applicable laws regarding the performance of any duty and to such matters as shall be settled by agreement predicated on the existence of liability pursuant to a failure to meet those standards.

Expenses incurred in defending any proceeding may be advanced by VYSL prior to the final disposition of such proceeding, upon receipt of an undertaking by or on behalf of the Officer(s) and/or Director(s) in such capacity or arising out of the Officer's and/or Director's status as such. VYSL has the power to purchase and maintain insurance on behalf of any Officer and/or Director of the Association against any liability asserted against or incurred by the Officer and/or Directors in such capacity or arising out of the Officer's and/or Director's status as such.

Dissolution or termination: Upon the dissolution or termination of VYSL, the Board of Directors shall, after resolution of all liabilities, transfer all property and assets to another 501c3 organization(s). No part of the property of the organization or any of the proceeds shall be distributed for the benefit of any private individual. Any remaining assets shall be disposed of by the Circuit Court of Clay County, in accordance with the above described purposes.

Governing law: The bylaws of VYSL shall be governed by and interpreted according to the laws of the State of South Dakota.

ARTICLE XI: AMENDMENTS

The bylaws may be altered, amended, or repealed and new bylaws adopted by a supermajority vote of the Board of Directors (before we had "Amendments and modifications to the Bylaws may be made only at an annual general membership meeting or at a special general membership meeting called for a particular purpose. A simple majority of votes cast is required to decide such questions"). For the purposes of Article XI, a supermajority is achieved with 76% approval of the entire voting Board of Directors. A minimum 15-day notice will be given to the voting membership prior to an amendment vote. Amendments and modifications to the bylaws shall take effect immediately but shall not be applied retroactively.
