Member Code of Conduct

We all have a responsibility to promote high standards of behavior in the game. As a player, you are part of both a team and a club and your actions reflect not only upon yourself, your team, but the rest of the Edge Futbol Club. As a member of the Club, you are responsible for your own actions and will be held accountable for them. Players and Parents are expected to adhere to the following codes of conduct. In addition, ALL members of the club (parents, players, staff) are expected to follow the FIFA code of Conduct. FIFA is the international governing body for our sport.

Code of Conduct: Parents

I will:

- Not coach the players from the sidelines; Let the coaches do their job and not confuse the players by telling them what I think they should do
- Not engage in, or tolerate, offensive, insulting or abusive language or behavior toward anyone at anytime during a club event
- Always respect the referees' decisions
- Never approach a coach on the field of play or near the playing venue with questions regarding playing time, positions, etc
- Encourage the players to respect the opposition and referees
