Tournament Notes 2018 TOSC (8-10) (Greenville years only)

-An estimated 4 inches of rain during the 8-10 TOSC which caused many delays, but a game was never postponed.

Tournament Notes 2017 TOSC (8-10) (Greenville years only)

-For the first time since the 8-10 TOSC has been held in Greenville each state won at least one game and each state lost at least one game in pool play.

-212 runs were scored in the 2017 TOSC down from the record high of 235 runs scored in 2016.

-Cole Ferguson of Barboursville, West Virginia, with 2 triples in the 2017 TOSC is the all time triples leader. 11 players have hit 1 triple in the past 4 years.

-Eventual TOSC Champion Tar Heel Little League of Greenville, North Carolina hit 15 doubles in the 2017 TOSC making them the doubles leader by team in the past 4 years.

-Vienna Little League of Vienna, Virginia, with a 2-2 mark helped maintain Virginia's healthy 4 game lead over the rest of the field in the all time overall standings by state. This dates back to 2005 when the tournament began.

-Each of the teams that reached the championship game suffered an opening day loss in pool play. San Carlos Little League of Fort Myers, Florida outlasted Northwood Little League of Taylors, South Carolina by a score of 15-12. Northern Little League of Columbus, Georgia knocked off Tar Heel Little League of Greenville, North Carolina by a score of 13-3. North Carolina and South Carolina did not lose another game until North Carolina squeaked past South Carolina 11-7 in the championship game.

-Tullahoma Little League of Tullahoma, Tennessee and Northern Little League (Columbus, Georgia) staged the longest game in 8-10 TOSC history as they played a 12 inning game. Georgia scored 4 in the top of the 12th and held on for a 7-3 win.

-Northwood Little League of Taylors, South Carolina and Ladonia Little League of Phenix City, Alabama endured a 2 hours and 36 minute delay for lightning (very little rain fell during the delay). South Carolina won the game, that lasted until 11:30pm 13-0.

-Tar Heel Little League won the TOSC for the first time in their third attempt. They also made appearances in 2008 and 2010.
