

2020 Carmen Congelli Softball Award Application

Annually, the Mid-Hudson Rebels honors a softball player with the Carmen Congelli Award, established in honor of a former Rebel who passed away from cancer in 2011. Carmen was a talented and fierce competitor who left a lasting impression on our organization and the young women and coaches who had the honor of competing with her. She showed incredible grit, passion, commitment and unbelievable resiliency playing the game she loved. Read more about Carmen on the Rebels website at www.midhudsonrebels.com.

To be eligible for the Congelli Award, a Rebel player must exhibit several characteristics:

- A dedicated member of the Rebels community who has also given back to the Rebels
- Consistently exhibits the Rebels' core principles: positive attitude, commitment and effort
- Demonstrates the same characteristics that Carmen Congelli exhibited
- Performs Community Service

The award will be presented at the Rebels golf tournament on May 2nd.
