

Parkway Central
Junior Colts Football
Parental Release and Assumption of Risk Form

Each undersigned, represents, agrees and warrants that they are the lawful parent or guardian of _____ (hereinafter referred to as "player") and have the authority to sign this form on behalf of player and to give him permission to play football for the Junior Colts.

No connection with Parkway School District: I understand that the Parkway Junior Colts are not under the control or supervision of the Parkway School District and understand that the school district has no responsibility whatsoever for this team.

Permission to Play Football and for Medical Treatment and Assumption of Risk

I understand that football is a contact sport and that it involves inherent and other risks of injury or death. I, On behalf of myself, my assignees, heirs, next of kin and executors voluntarily agree to assume all risks of injury or death, that may result from players participation, in any way, including transportation, in Junior Colts Football. I, being aware of these risks, give player permission to participate in all respects and give permission to the coaches or their designees to transport player and to arrange for medical treatment which such coach deems necessary or convenient.

Release of Liability

I acknowledge that the coaches of the Junior Colts are unpaid volunteers. I, for myself and on behalf of player, agree to release, all coaches and all other persons or entities associated with the Junior Colts, from any and all liability whatsoever (except to the extent of their applicable liability insurance) including liability for their own negligence for injury of any nature or death arising in any way or related to player's participation in Junior Colts football or transportation involving such participation. If there is applicable liability insurance for any party, I agree that any judgment will be collected only from the insurance policy and no other assets are subject to execution.

Indemnification

I agree to indemnify and hold harmless all coaches and all other persons or entities associated with the Junior Colts (except to the extent actually covered by applicable liability insurance) for any loss or damage, including attorney's fees, including any that result from personal injury or death, arising in any way or related to player's participation in Junior Colt football or transportation involving such participation including claims for their own negligence and including any attorney's fees necessary to enforce any such coach's or person's liability insurance.
