VALUE:

The investment in time, money and effort can pay enormous dividends, as the Junior Program is a prime source for showcasing talented players to college recruiters and significant scholarship funds. Other benefits include the enhancement of self-confidence and self-esteem as well as just having a lot of FUN training and competing in the world's greatest sport.

A Junior Volleyball Program looks at first glance to be an expensive program. When compared with summer camps, the monetary value becomes evident. The training value is enhanced by the greatly increased number of hours available in the extended program versus a one-week camp.

CLUB ADMINISTRATION & STAFF:

The club administrated by Mike Gibson, Al Edwards, and Lou Mitchell. Each individual team will be coached by an area Junior, High School or former Collegiate coach.
