

When does the regular Spring lacrosse season start and end?

While games start the first weekend in April and end the first weekend in July, informal practices can run randomly indoors during the months of January and February while true lacrosse season practices start in March.