Enjoyable Learning

Intense yet fun

It is our core belief that a basketball camp needs 3 pillars for success. It has to accomplish the goal of improving players while still allowing the passionate player to enjoy the sport and have a fun week. Along with improvement and enjoyment, sports need to allow kids to learn broader lessons in life. As parents first and coaches second we strive to maintain a balance between all 3.

Who we are

Shannon Sweeney

Shannon grew up in Lafayette and played basketball in Sussex County throughout his high school career before going to play 4 years at Rutgers-Newark. After returning from a stint playing professional basketball in Europe, he began running youth basketball camps, coaching AAU, and volunteering as a coach and has done so over the last 20 years. He is a father that also coaches his children.

CAMP MOTTO

"Better today than yesterday, better tomorrow than today"

Brian Chapman

Brian was an accomplished high school player that later went on to compete in college. Over the last 20 years, Brian has served in many capacities coaching at the college level, including the current head coach of William Patterson University. Brian has been a constant evaluator and instructor of basketball talent at all levels of play. Brian is also a father and coach to both of his daughters.
