- D. All players present must be included in the line-up and take their turn at bat even if not playing in the field. It is the obligation of the coach to insure that players bat in their proper positions at all times.
- E. There will be no strike outs, bunting, stealing, or lead offs.
- F. A runner will advance one base at a time.
- G. Coaches are allowed to help the batter set up his/her stance and practice swing but must the coaches remove their hands before contact with the ball is achieved.
- H. If a batter is unable to hit the ball from the tee after three tries, the coach may help hold the bat with the batter including contact with the ball in order to advance the play.
- I. In the event of an injury on the field, time will be called immediately and all play will be halted. Once play has been restored, the game will continue at the point in which it was halted.
- J. A runner may not pass up a slower runner, the passing runner will be declared out.
- K. Two base coaches are allowed at first/third coaching boxes while their team is batting.

FIELD POSTIONS:

- 1. Each team should have at least nine players to start the game, and no more than eleven* players out in the field during the game.
 - Exception: Additional players may play in the outfield only by mutual consent of both coaches to avoid having to monitor each player's total playing time.
- 2. A pitcher must remain behind the Pitcher's line until the ball is put into play. If the pitcher crosses the line too soon:
 - 1st offense - warning to the player/coach
 - 2nd offense - the player is removed from that position
- 3. A total of (6) Infielders, including the Pitcher/Catcher, will be allowed in the Infield. The remainder of the team can be placed in the outfield.
- 4. All players are not allowed to play more than two innings per game in the same position. It is encouraged to rotate infield to outfield and vice versa once every two innings to speed up play.
- 5. They cannot come any closer to home plate than the 1/2 way imaginary line between first and third base unless the ball is fair in the field of play
- 6. Infielders are not allowed to play their positions in the base paths. In the event of interference with the runner, the runner will be awarded the base.
- 7. For the Catcher, a chest protector and mask are not mandatory, but are available upon request.
- 8. Parents are allowed to stand with players in the outfield. Parents should help direct but not actually make contact with the ball during the play.
- 9. There are no overthrow plays allowed. If the ball is overthrown at first or third, the runner will not be allowed to advance. NO EXCEPTIONS. After the ovethrow, the ball is considered dead.
- 10. On any play at home plate, the defensive player with the ball must reach the 10 foot circle before the runner for the runner to be called out. The umpire will decide who reached the circle first. In addition, the runner must touch home plate for the run to count as there is no sliding. Coaches should encourage their defensive players to throw to the catcher.
