

Fall 2019 FC Farmington Junior Development League

The Junior Development league is designed to introduce youth players to organized soccer and make it both educational and fun! Our league will provide access to club training to all players as well as organized games at each session. This will allow the easiest transition for new youth players to club soccer as help the players grow in the game. Please visit our website and click register in the top right corner of the webpage. We have limited spots available for the Fall so please make sure that you register in a timely manner!
