

“California Format Tie-breaker”

In the event of a tie after 6 innings of play or the time limit has expired (the home team has completed their past at bat), The “California Format Tie-breaker will be employed”

Definition:

- 1. The batting orders remains the same as it was in the inning just ended.
- 2. The visiting team will place their last player to make an out on second base.
- 3. The umpire will set the out count to one out.
- 4. The batting order will remain the same and the inning commences until the third out is achieved.
- 5. The home team will then repeat the same process.
- 6. The team with the most runs scored will be declared the winner.
- 7. There will be only 3 warm up pitches allowed between innings or change of pitcher.
- 8. If after the first round, the teams are still tied, one additional round will begin with the runner now at third base.
- 9. If the score still remains tied, team that was ahead the last complete inning where the score was not tied will be declared the winner.
- 10. The allowed outs-per-pitcher remains in effect.