

Q: When do I register?

A: Registration and payments will open after tryouts in mid-June. An email will be sent to the players who attended the tryouts.

Q: Will there be a make-up tryout?

A: Yes, make-up tryouts will be on August 10, 2019.

Q: My player will be going into Majors Division next year. Currently he/she is league age 11. Can s/he participate in A.L.L. Fall Ball?

A: Yes, players going into Majors Division can participate in A.L.L. Fall Ball. This is an excellent opportunity to improve & build on their spring season successes to increase their skills and baseball IQ.

Q: Does trying out guarantee placement on a team?

A: Placement will depend upon the number of volunteer coaches and players. We will make all efforts to place players on a team.

Q: When and where will practices and games be held?

A: Practices and games will be played on the Major and Minor fields. Practice schedules will be established by the team manager. Games will be held on the weekends.

Q: When will I know which team my player will be on?

A: Teams will be formed in mid-August. Players will be notified of their team placement shortly thereafter.

Q: Will team uniforms and equipment be provided?

A: Team jerseys and hats will be provided. However, jerseys must be returned at the end of the season. Players will be responsible for purchasing their own team colored socks, pants and belts. (Hopefully you already have the right color pants!)

A: No, A.L.L Fall Ball teams typically play against other Alameda Fall Ball league teams. Games against other Bay Area league teams may be played if both teams' schedules permit.

Q: Will all A.L.L Fall Ball players play against other Bay Area league teams?

A: Players who exhibit strong skills, positive attitude and good attendance will be selected to play against other Bay Area teams.

Q: Will teams be playing by USSSA rules or Little League rules?

A: Games will be played under Little League rules. The primary objective of A.L.L Fall Ball is to prepare players for the spring little league season. In some cases, more advanced rules may be practiced during games if agreed upon in advance by the opposing team.
