

First try refreshing your page (you may be looking at a cached page, and not the actual page). Hopefully the screen shots below are what you see after logging in and will help you register your team successfully. If not, send a screen shot of where you are getting stuck to Classic@msisoccer.org, please include your team gender/age group/name. One key is to always hit next or continue...

Once you log in, and see this, click on the “volunteer opportunities” above the list of names (hopefully at least you and your kids are listed);

Then, on the far right, click the blue “Find Volunteer Roles”

This is what should pop up:

Looking to get involved? Here are some opportunities.
You can sign up yourself or a family member.

And all the way on the right side, is a little down arrow.

And when you click that arrow, this comes up (you'll click the appropriate age group, this is from me registering my son's HS team):

If the screen below doesn't come up, keep scrolling down...

If you did not get the screen above, it is likely because you have a second child in the system. Hopefully, instead, your screen looks like the screen shot below. If that's the case, you need to click the little arrow (above on the right, circled in red), and keep clicking it, until you get to the Classic option.

Next (this is for whoever is registering the team, please do not worry if you are the Manager, not the Head Coach):
