

CARMEN JULIANO

Technical Director

Boys Director of Coaching

2004 Boys Black

Carmen Juliano has been with CiTY since the start serving as Technical Director and is currently the 2004 Boys Lead coach. A native of Long Branch, NJ, he earned All-County and All-State honors and is a member of the LBHS Hall of Fame. Carmen attended Virginia Tech where earned All-State and All-Region honors and was the Hokie's assistant coach for two seasons. After college, Carmen played professionally for the New Mexico Chiles. A USSF "B" licensed coach, he is on the MSYSA Coaching Education Staff and was a Maryland ODP coach for 3 years. Carmen has coached youth soccer teams for 20 years.