NEW REGISTRATION HOW TO GUIDE:

If you are registering for the first time proceed with the next step. If you are a returning customer click here to be taken to the returning customer page.

In the upper right corner of the home page website (waaabaseball.com) click on Register.

On the right hand side of your screen, under the New Customer Primary Contact section answer the series of questions and click Create New Account button. Your new account that you have created will be used for every season, so please try and remember your login ID and password that you have created.

Secondary information is optional.
Add new player information in the required fields. If you want to add another player once complete with the first participants information click on add another participant if not click the Next button.

This screen displays a list of all the available programs. You will then see each child/player listed and the programs/divisions they can participate in based on age they will be by 4/30 of the year they are playing in. Select the program that you would like to join by clicking the check box to the left and clicking the Next button.

Next screen is the shopping cart screen. You can click on Next if you are satisfied with your cart or you can click the check box under the remove column next to the player’s row if you need to remove that program. Then click on update cart.

This screen is asking for additional information required. For players requesting to play with a specific coach or player please populate that field. Player or Coach Selection is NOT GUARANTEED! Once complete click the Next button.

This step is very important: Washington Baseball is always looking for parents to help volunteer. Without volunteers this league would be what it is today. Please help!!!

If you would like to Manage a team or be an Assistant Coach select the appropriate row and click Next.
If you choose to volunteer you will have another page asking for additional volunteer information. Click Next when complete. If you are unable to volunteer click Next and you skip this next page.

The final page is the checkout screen. This screen gives a summary of the transaction, allows you to enter your credit card information and submit the order via the submit order button. You'll receive an email with all of your transaction information.
