

POTOMAC VALLEY YOUTH ASSOCIATION
Lawrence Gray Jr. Memorial Scholarship
STUDENT /ATHLETE APPLICATION

This scholarship is offered by the POTOMAC VALLEY YOUTH ASSOCIATION. It is presented as an honor to selected student athletes who have dedicated themselves to their efforts in their community, their school, the classroom and athletics while attending Brunswick High School. It will honor academic, athletic, school and community involvement and service. This scholarship is in memory of Lawrence Gray Jr, who gave much to the students of Brunswick High School in the performance of his duties as a Brunswick High School staff member.

$ 500.00 will be awarded to up to 2 student / athletes (1 male & 1 female) who meet the basic requirements for the scholarship. The club has the right to award NO funds in the event that no worthy candidates apply or meet the qualifications. In the event of a tie in the total points used to evaluate a winner, the highest total college entrance exam score will be used to determine the winner.

To be considered for evaluation for this scholarship, the association has established the following requirements:

1. The applicant must have attended Brunswick High School and will graduate from Brunswick High School.
2. The applicant must have completed at least 1 season of high school and 1 PVYA sponsored sport that is listed in this application.
3. The applicant must have applied to and been accepted at a school of higher learning upon graduation.
4. This application must be returned to the high school guidance department with proper signatures by: MAY 9th.

Selection of the winners will be made by a committee, appointed by the association. Committee members are not directly associated with PVYA. Members will review all information separately in a "blind" manner so that they have no knowledge of the applicant's identity beyond the accomplishments listed.

If you are awarded the scholarship, your name will be announced at the school award assembly. You will also be notified by letter as to what you must do to receive payment of the funds. Funds can only be used to pay tuition cost at the school you attend.

You must successfully complete the 1st semester and attend the 2nd semester of your school. Funds will be applied to the 2nd semester tuition cost.

All applicants must have a parent / guardian signature on this form when it is returned to the school guidance department by the stated due date. Late applications will not be accepted without prior notification and explanation being given to the scholarship committee.

Failure to notify PVYA of the address to send the funds to, by the date given in the award letter, will result in the loss of the award! That award notification letter will be sent to the winner by July 1st.

PVYA SCHOLARHIP APPLICATION

Information given on this form will be used confidentially by the scholarship committee. Falsifying information on this form will be cause for withdrawal from consideration.
