Due to these requirements, the Boys & Girls Club of the Berkshires will be unable to provide transportation for Camp Russell. Children at Risk

Parents who arrive at camp in an incapacitated condition (i.e. alcohol, drugs) present a risk to their child. The staff in charge will advise the parent of their options regarding the transportation of their child to his/her home. Some options that may be exercised are:

Conduct:

Every child has the right to expect to have the best possible experience at camp. We realize that the potential for bullying or hurting a child exists in any group situation; therefore, there must be measures in place to keep such behavior out of camp. Part of the camp experience is learning how to deal with new people and different situations, but sometimes there are situations where your child may need to ask for adult help. Please encourage your child to ask a counselor or any adult staff whenever they feel they need help. We will be in contact with the parent as events may unfold.

We strive to provide a safe, happy camp environment for your child. So if you have ANY concerns, please contact the Camp Director. We will answer your questions, speak to the camper, speak to staff members, and then reconnect with you. The best time to call camp is between the hours of 9 a.m. and 11:00 a.m. otherwise you can call the Boys & Girls Club to leave a message for any of us and we will return the call A.S.A.P.

We do not permit language or actions that can hurt or frighten another person. Specifically this includes:

- Angry or vulgar language including swearing, name calling, and shouting;
- Physical contact with another person in an angry or threatening way;
- Any demonstration of sexual activity or sexual contact with another person;
- Harassment or intimidation with words, gestures, body language or other menacing behavior;
- Behavior which intends to or results in theft or destruction of property;
- Carrying or concealing any weapons or devices that may be used as weapons.

Every situation will be assessed as to the severity of the circumstance but please know that bullying or abusive conduct will not be tolerated. It may start with just a time-out for the child (with a call to the parent), if it continues it may mean a day off or even the rest of the session off which will NOT be refundable.

Discipline Policy

If your child needs to be disciplined, acceptable measures may include; stern verbal warnings, time-out from an activity, removal from an activity and placed with staff member away from the group, suspension from camp, removal from camp. Unacceptable measures may include; verbally degrading a camper or counselor, physical punishment, isolation without proper supervision.

Expectations

Good behavior will be encouraged in a positive manner. The staff will work cooperatively with parents, keeping them informed of behavior issues and methods used to teach and guide the campers toward socially acceptable behavior. Behavior problems that cannot be resolved cooperatively will result in your child's dismissal from Camp Russell. Certain abusive behaviors will result in immediate dismissal. If your child has been receiving assistance in behavior management during the school year, it is imperative that this information be shared with camp staff. This will enable us to work more effectively and productively with your child.

Grievances

If at any time a parent feels that an issue has not been addressed or resolved and it may need to be pursued further, we are here to support that process. It is essential that parents and families are heard when they raise a concern. All parent concerns should be addressed initially at the level closest to the event in an effort to come to a resolution. The early identification and communication of a concern and prompt initiation of a resolution can help avoid further problems. If you have a question, concern or issue, the following steps will help facilitate the problem solving process.

1. Speak with your lead counselor
2. If unsatisfied, then speak with the Camp supervisor
3. If unsatisfied, please speak with the Camp Director, Dan Joslyn 413-698-2716 and ask for Dan or email djoslyn@bgcberkshires.org
 - A. Parents may request a form from the Camp Director to request copies of the Boys & Girls Club of the Berkshires policies regarding background checks, health care and discipline policies.

Please mark all lunches and all containers inside with campers first and last names. Please do not provide your camper with food that will need heating or require a microwave. Camp staff is not responsible for food preparation or preheating meals.

We intend to offer a camp store for purchase of snacks and beverages but at the time of this handbook we do not have full details. If the camp store returns, you may choose to send your child with money to purchase snacks and beverages.

- First Aid will be provided and the incident recorded in the camp log.
- The child will periodically be observed after First Aid has been applied.

In the event of a medical emergency, immediate action will be taken by the staff and the Camp Director will be notified. Sunscreen

Campers will be expected to provide their own sunscreen and lip balm for daily personal use. Parents are asked to apply sunscreen prior to bringing their child to camp each day. Camp staff will not rub sunscreen on any child but will remind them to put it on throughout the day. Camp staff can only help with sunscreen application if it is spray lotion and the parent/guardian has signed the sunscreen application form.

Bug Spray

Campers will be expected to provide their own bug spray for daily personal use. Camp staff will remind campers to put on their bug spray throughout the day. Camp staff can only help with spraying the bug repellent on the child without rubbing it on and the parent guardian has signed the bug spray application form.

Tick Checks

Tick exposure is most active during warmer months (April-September) and live in grassy, brushy or wooded area or on animals. To prevent tickets parents should expect to provide their own tick repellent and apply to clothing and gear prior to bringing their child to camp. Parents are strongly encouraged to carry out a tick check after each camp day, preferably as soon as the camper is picked up or arrives at home. A full body check for ticks should be conducted including clothes and gear. Areas of the body to check should include: Under the arms, in and around the ears, inside belly button, back of knees, in and around the hair, between the legs and around the waist.

Allergies/ Allergy Awareness

Camp Russell staff are provided with a list of your child's allergies and maintains allergen sensitive tables in the dining hall. We try our best to accommodate these campers without inconveniencing other campers. If you're aware that your child is severely allergic to something, it is your responsibility to notify the Camp Russell Nurse in advance so we can take the proper precautions. In the event of a severe allergic reaction, the epi-pen will be administered, 911 called, and the protocol for a child with a medical emergency will be followed.

Infection Control

The parent or guardian of any child suspected of being ill with a communicable disease, or diagnosed as such, shall be contacted immediately by the health supervisor or camp operator to make arrangements for the camper to receive necessary medical attention. The child will either be brought to the hospital for immediate attention, or discharged from camp to a parent/guardian, or the parent/guardian's approved designee, depending on the nature and severity of the illness. Space shall be designated for isolation of a child ill with a communicable disease or suspected of such illness or otherwise in need of quiet and rest while the health supervisor, camp operator, and parent/guardian make the necessary arrangements for appropriate medical care. This space shall be separate from regular living and sleeping quarters so as to ensure both quiet to the child and safety to others. The space shall be suitably equipped and not utilized for any other purpose. An isolated child shall be provided with adequate adult supervision and all basic necessities, in accordance with the procedures for isolation and quarantine outlined in 105 CMR 300.210. A child will only be kept in isolation if medically necessary and only until the necessary arrangements for appropriate medical care can be made.

Meningococcal Disease and Camp Attendees: Commonly Asked Questions

What is meningococcal disease?

Meningococcal disease is caused by infection with bacteria called Neisseria meningitidis. These bacteria can infect the tissue (the “meninges”) that surrounds the brain and spinal cord and cause meningitis, or they may infect the blood or other organs of the body. Symptoms of meningococcal disease may appear suddenly. Fever, severe and constant headache, stiff neck or neck pain, nausea and vomiting, and rash can all be signs of meningococcal disease. Changes in behavior such as confusion, sleepiness, and trouble waking up can also be important symptoms. In the US, about 350-550 people get meningococcal disease each year and 10-15% die despite receiving antibiotic treatment. Of those who survive, about 10-20% may lose limbs, become hard of hearing or deaf, have problems with their nervous system, including long term neurologic problems, or have seizures or strokes. Less common presentations include pneumonia and arthritis.

How is meningococcal disease spread?

These bacteria are passed from person-to-person through saliva (spit). You must be in close contact with an infected person’s saliva in order for the bacteria to spread. Close contact includes activities such as kissing, sharing water bottles, sharing eating/drinking utensils or sharing cigarettes with someone who is infected; or being within 3-6 feet of someone who is infected and is coughing and sneezing.

Who is most at risk for getting meningococcal disease?

People who travel to certain parts of the world where the disease is very common, microbiologists, people with HIV infection and those exposed to meningococcal disease during an outbreak are at risk for meningococcal disease. Children and adults with damaged or removed spleens or persistent complement component deficiency (an inherited immune disorder) are at risk. Adolescents, and people who live in certain settings such as college freshmen living in dormitories and military recruits are at greater risk of disease from some of the serotypes.

Are camp attendees at increased risk for meningococcal disease?

Children attending day or residential camps are not considered to be at an increased risk for meningococcal disease because of their participation.

Is there a vaccine against meningococcal disease?

Yes, there are 2 different meningococcal vaccines. Quadrivalent meningococcal conjugate vaccine (Menactra and Menveo) protects against 4 serotypes (A, C, W and Y) of meningococcal disease. Meningococcal serogroup B vaccine (Bexsero and Trumenba) protects against serogroup B meningococcal disease, for age 10 and older.

Should my child or adolescent receive meningococcal vaccine?

That depends. Meningococcal conjugate vaccine is routinely recommended at age 11-12 years with a booster at age 16. In addition, these vaccines may be recommended for children with certain high-risk health conditions, such as those described above. Otherwise, meningococcal vaccine is not recommended for attendance at camps.

Meningococcal serogroup B vaccine (Bexsero and Trumenba) is recommended for people with certain relatively rare high-risk health conditions (examples: persons with a damaged spleen or whose spleen has been removed, those with persistent complement component deficiency (an inherited disorder), and people who may have been exposed during an outbreak). Adolescents and young adults (16 through 23 years of age) who do not have high risk conditions may be vaccinated with a serogroup B meningococcal vaccine, preferably at 16 through 18 years of age, to provide short term protection for most strains of serogroup B meningococcal disease. Parents of adolescents and children who are at higher risk of infection, because of certain medical conditions or other circumstances, should discuss vaccination with their child’s healthcare provider.

How can I protect my child or adolescent from getting meningococcal disease?

The best protection against meningococcal disease and many other infectious diseases is thorough and frequent handwashing, respiratory hygiene and cough etiquette. Individuals should:

1. wash their hands often, especially after using the toilet and before eating or preparing food (hands should be washed with soap and water or an alcohol-based hand gel or rub may be used if hands are not visibly dirty);
2. cover their nose and mouth with a tissue when coughing or sneezing and discard the tissue in a trash can; or if they don’t have a tissue, cough or sneeze into their upper sleeve.
3. not share food, drinks or eating utensils with other people, especially if they are ill.

4. contact their healthcare provider immediately if they have symptoms of meningococcal disease.

If your child is exposed to someone with meningococcal disease, antibiotics may be recommended to keep your child from getting sick.

You can obtain more information about meningococcal disease or vaccination from your healthcare provider, your local Board of Health (listed in the phone book under government), or the Massachusetts Department of Public Health Division of Epidemiology and Immunization at (617) 983-6800 or on the MDPH website at www.mass.gov/dph.
