

Nick Pagliaro, who became the "Godfather of Soccer" in Ridgefield Park, was instrumental in getting the soccer program started in the High School. Under his direction the travel program flourished and has been able to feed the High School program, resulting in some very successful varsity teams for both boys and girls. In his memory, we named our concession area "Nick's Place"