

2014 FTSA UNACCEPTABLE CONDUCT PENALTIES

Ejections for Violent Conduct: Players sent off for violent conduct shall suffer the suspensions listed in the Table of Standard Penalties for Unacceptable Conduct for the first offense during any seasonal year. Suspensions may be doubled for the second offense in any one seasonal year.

Accumulation of Cautions: A player who, in any given seasonal year, accumulates three (3) individual cautions may be suspended for one (1) game. A second accumulation of three (3) individual cautions within the seasonal year may result in an additional suspension of two (2) games. Further, misconduct on the part of the same individual may be sufficient cause of the Executive Board to consider additional penalties of increased severity. In each case, action against the individual is initiated by the referee's game report.

Accumulation of Cautions for Dissent: A player who, in any given seasonal year, accumulates two (2) individual cautions for dissent shall be suspended for one (1) game. Further cautions for dissent on the part of the same individual may be sufficient cause of the Grievance Committee to consider additional penalties of increased severity. In each case, action against the individual is initiated by the referee's game report.

Conduct Detrimental to the Good and Welfare of the Game: Any player, coach or team official, or club officer, whose conduct is considered to be detrimental to the good and welfare of the game, is subject to suspension as determined by the Executive Board.

Repetitive Detrimental Conduct: A coach or team official, who in any given seasonal year, accumulates two individual cautions, shall be subject to suspension by the Executive Board.

Ejection: Should a team official or coach be ejected from the game, the penalty for the first offense shall be a two game suspension (minimum) and appearance before the Executive Board.

Period of Limitation: Charges shall be brought within one month of the alleged offense and not thereafter.
