Camp Director

John Cole finished his third season as head coach of the Jamestown Eagles. He built Jamestown into a state power in three seasons. His career record at Jamestown in games he coached was 61-8. The 2018 Eagles finished 19-5 losing in the state final on a dramatic walk-off. The 2017 team finished 22-3 and ran off a school record 22 wins in a row only to lose to perennial state champion Hanover in a thrilling 2-1, 13-inning State quarterfinal game. (It is widely viewed as one of the greatest high school baseball games in Virginia High School sports). In 2016, his team won a 20 consecutive games (22-3), the Bay Rivers District Title and advanced to the State 4A final four.

He comes to Jamestown after two head coaching stints, at Rowan University and the University of Pennsylvania. His career collegiate coaching mark is 379-219 which includes one division title, three conference titles and two trips to the NCAA Division III World Series. He is currently ranked second in the history of D3 college baseball for a career winning percentage of 74%. For all his teams' successes, Cole has been named Philadelphia Big 5 Coach of the Year, twice named Mid-Atlantic Coach-of-the-year and four times named NJAC Coach-of-the-year. Cole had previously coached at CNU, William & Mary, Dartmouth, DeSales and the University of North Carolina. Cole has recruited and signed over 35 professional players including two Major Leaguers. He played professional baseball with the Boise Hawks Class A Northwest League in 1986. Cole earned a master's degree in education from the University of North Carolina in 1988. He is recognized as an outstanding developer of young players and one of the premier teachers of the game. He is married to Elizabeth Cole and they have three children Cassandra (17), Kevin (15) and Andrew (12).
