CODE OF CONDUCT

All coaches regardless of sport shall be responsible to the Fox-Rok Executive Board for their own actions and the behavior of their players.

All coaches shall be responsible for spectator conduct, which includes the player’s family members.

Coaches, players and parents are to refrain from unsportsmanship conduct including, but not limited to the following:

- Abusive language.
- Vulgar language.
- Unsportsmanship conduct toward any umpire(s) or referee(s).
 - No parent or player shall confront a referee or umpire about any calls made during a game. If a coach is unhappy about the call, he/she will inquire about the call and the reason for it with the official. We have and will suspend or forbid unruly parents from attending Fox-Rok sponsored events.
- Any player or coach involved in any form of physical contact (pushing, shoving or hitting) will be automatically suspended for three (3) games to be served consecutively. The Executive Board will consider longer suspensions depending on the seriousness of the confrontation. We will not tolerate any fights.
- Being under the influence of alcohol and/or non-prescribed drugs during a game or practice.
- Taunting opposing players.
- Use of any equipment as a weapon.
- Anyone caught vandalizing Fox-Rok property or equipment will be permanently removed from membership with the Fox-Rok Athletic Association and the incident will be reported to the Philadelphia Police Department.

Any of the above infractions could result in a ban from the Fox-Rok Athletic Association for failure to abide by these rules of conduct.

In addition, as coach, I agree to submit background checks to the Fox-Rok Athletic Associate prior to coaching that is in conformance with the Pennsylvania State laws and will take responsible for the return of all equipment issued at the end of the season for the applicable sport.

By signing below, I acknowledge that I fully understand and agree to this Code of Conduct and the policies of the Fox-Rok Athletic Association.
