

FFC would like to welcome Tom Leiss as our new Social Media / Press / Communications Director.

Tom has lived in Fredericksburg since 1982 and is a graduate of Chancellor High School, after attending Battlefield Middle and Elementary Schools. He went on to graduate from Germanna Community College, followed by Virginia Commonwealth University in 1998 with a degree in Communications, concentrating in News-Editorial. He currently works in the sports department at The Free Lance-Star in Fredericksburg, Va., as well as working as a freelancer writer at times.

Tom has been involved in soccer in the Fredericksburg-area and beyond as a blogger, writer, player (adult and youth), coach (middle, high school, adult and parks & recreation), manager, league administrator, referee and fan in his career since first playing the game as an eight-year old. He has also been very involved with the Fredericksburg FC NPSL and WPSL teams, and is the co-Founder of the “Burg Brigade 1728” FFC supporters’ group.
