

The Fairfield University Stags along with coaches from England and Europe invite you to an intense camp designed to fit your needs, whether you are an elite player looking to play in college, a high school varsity team captain looking for a camp to train your squad, or an athlete looking to try out for your school's team in the fall.

Our camp director, Jackie Kane, is a recent CT Hall of Fame inductee and has the most wins for the Stags and Fairfield.

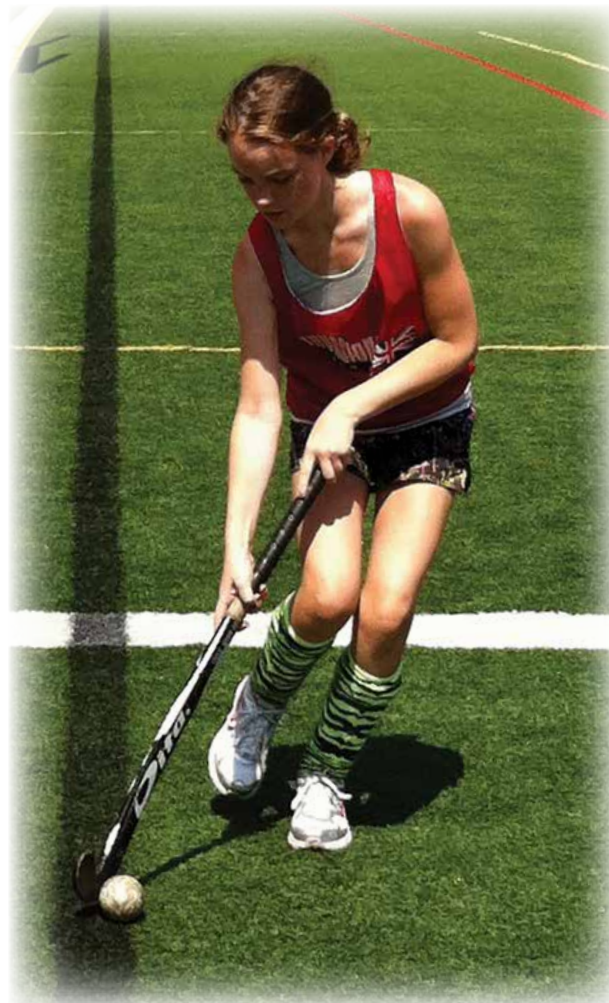

She has led her team to 13 post season tournaments. Winning the MAAC Championship in 2015 and 2017 then advancing to the NCAA tournament. Coach Kane excels in providing the highest quality camps. Invasion Camps are fun, improve hockey skills, and provide the campers with the opportunity to make life-long friends.

Fairfield University is located one hour from New York City on 200 rolling acres, over-looking the Long Island Sound. Campers practice and play on the University's synthetic grass stadium under the lights for night games, as well as on the University's artificial turf and grass fields.

FIELD HOCKEY

Individual and Team Camp: July 8-11

This session is designed for campers ages 10-18 and is available to individuals as well as teams. Campers are trained like collegiate athletes, practicing techniques and tactics that have been used successfully by Fairfield University's field hockey program. Campers are placed in small groups based on their age and ability and receive specific position-related instruction. The campers have ample opportunities to exhibit their new skills in game situations.

- ▶ Teams are welcome and will practice together.
- ▶ Specialized Middle School program.
- ▶ Individualized goalkeeping instruction.
- ▶ The camp ends with a fun and exciting field hockey tournament.

ID/High Performance Camp: July 8-11
