Dear Applicant:

Attached is the application for the Geri Kurlander Memorial Scholarship that is funded by the Hamilton Girls Soccer Club. Each year, at a minimum an award will be made to a current senior attending an area high school. The award amount will depend on the number of applicants and the funds available in the Club's account.

Any female who is currently in their senior year at any area High School and is entering an accredited junior college, college, university or tech/trade school as a freshman for the fall 2020 semester and has played in Hamilton Girls Soccer Club for at least 3 years is eligible for the scholarship.

The criteria used to judge the applications are academic record, extracurricular activities, community service, and contributions to the game of soccer and especially service to the Hamilton Girls Soccer Club.

Please complete the application cover sheet and answer the questions attached per the instructions on the application. Return the application to the above address.

To be considered, the completed application and documentation must be postmarked by May 1, 2020. The scholarship is being awarded in honor of Geri Kurlander, one of the founders of Hamilton Girls Soccer Club.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me at President@HamiltonGirlsSoccer.com.

Yours in Soccer,

Jim Gill,
President
